Communion Statement - The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth His death until He comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the Sacrament, are kindly asked first to speak with the pastor. In addition to this being our practice, we do not want our visitors to violate their own conscience or the public confession of faith that is made through their home Church membership. Those not receiving communion are invited to come forward with arms crossed to receive a blessing from the pastor. We thank you for respecting our practice. For further study, see Matt. 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15–35; 26:26–29; 1 Cor. 11:17–34.

Introit

Psalm 31:1, 3, 5; antiphon: Revelation 7:14b

- P These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
- C In you, O Lord, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame; in your righteousness deliver me.
- P For you are my rock and my fortress; and for your name's sake you lead me and guide me.
- C Into your hand I commit my spirit; you have redeemed me, O Lord, faithful God.
- C Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

- P These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Collect of the Day

- P Almighty and everlasting God, You knit together Your faithful people of all times and places into one holy communion, the mystical body of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant us so to follow Your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that, together with them, we may come to the unspeakable joys You have prepared for those who love You; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Gradual

Revelation 7:14b; Psalm 84:5

- P These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Blessed are those whose strength is in you, in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Below you will find a model you can use for your personal or family devotions that focuses you on the readings from the previous Sunday, while also preparing you for what you will hear the following Sunday. In modeling your devotions this way, you and your family can stay united to the church year and reinforce what you hear, sing, and pray every Sunday.

Mon. 11/4: Read the first lesson: Revelation 7:(2-8) 9-17 – We join with the complete multitude of the saints praising the Lamb, by whose blood we are cleansed, and giving Him thanks for this salvation.

Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 677 – For All the Saints

Pray the Collect of the Day: Almighty and everlasting God, You knit together Your faithful people of all times and places into one holy communion, the mystical body of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant us so to follow Your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that, together with them, we may come to the unspeakable joys You have prepared for those who love You; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Tues. 11/5: Read the Epistle lesson: 1 John 3:1-3 – We are the children of God and, though it is hidden to our eyes now, He will purify us by the blood of Christ, making us to be like Him in His glory.

Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 677 – For All the Saints

Pray the Collect of the Day: (see 11/4)

Wed. 11/6: Read the Gospel lesson: Matthew 5:1-12 – Blessed is Christ, who is the fulfillment of the Beatitudes, and blessed are we who are joined into Christ.

Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 677 – For All the Saints

Pray the Collect of the Day: (see 11/4)

Thur. 11/7: Read the Old Testament lesson: 1 Kings 17:8-16 – God provides for the widow, her son, and Elijah by giving them their daily bread through and according to His Word.

Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 738 – Lord of All Hopefulness

Pray the Collect of the Day: Almighty and ever-living God, You have given exceedingly great and precious promises to those who trust in You. Grant us so firmly to believe in Your Son Jesus that our faith may never be found wanting; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Fri. 11/8: Read the Epistle lesson: Hebrews 9:24-28 – Christ has dealt with our sin once and for all through His suffering and death, so we look for His return as He brings salvation.

Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 738 – Lord of All Hopefulness

Pray the Collect of the Day: (see 11/7)

Sat. 11/9: Read the Gospel lesson: Mark 12:38-44 – The widow and her offering shows the true joy and generosity which comes through faith in Jesus Christ.

Sing the Hymn of the Day: LSB 738 – Lord of All Hopefulness

Pray the Collect of the Day: (see 11/7)

MEMBERS AND GUESTS:

We will celebrate Holy Communion during our worship service this morning.

If you are partaking of the Lord's Supper, please read and fill out one of the registration cards on the back of the pew. You may place it in the offering plate or hand it to the usher.
