Be Uncomfortable

- Pastor Sorenson

For years I've encouraged the congregation to come to Holy Week services (Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Vigil). Yet, many people stay away from these services. The pews are never as full as they are for Easter morning or Christmas or even just a regular Sunday throughout the year. Why?

It really comes down to one thing. It's uncomfortable. The services during this most holy week of the year are different. They look different. They sound different. The flow and rhythm of them are different. Just about everything changes and people don't like change.

It's also an uncomfortable time to try to make work. Who can work all day and then even think about coming to church 5 out of 8 days, including 4 days in a row? Not to mention, the services of the Triduum (Thursday, Friday, and Saturday) are all at night. It's hard to make that kind of commitment, especially when you already know how the story goes.

The season doesn't help either. The weather is starting to get nicer. You've been cooped up all winter and you can finally get outside and do all of the work and chores and play you've been wanting to do for so long. How can you give up what's bound to be a few nice evenings outside by sitting inside a church building?

But perhaps most uncomfortably of all, these services make you face very serious issues. These services aren't like cotton candy where they're sweet on the lips for a moment but have no substance to them. Rather, these services are rich and dense. These services pull no punches. These services make you face your sin and the sin of the world. Your mortality and lifelong suffering because of these sins. The brutality that's been perpetuated against your Lord and Savior, as He was beaten, mocked, and killed.

Those things are only the tip of the iceberg too. Because within this Holy Week and each of the services, the entirety of the history of salvation is delivered to you. Everything from creation and the fall into sin to the sufferings and trials of God's people to the Passion of Jesus Christ and His glorious resurrection on the third day.

But that's the point. That's why these services deserve your full attention and commitment. That's why this week is one you should make every effort, every sacrifice possible to be sure that you are in attendance. Because throughout Holy Week, God is coming to walk with you through the entire history of your salvation. He holds nothing back because He wants you to know how sure and certain your salvation is. And so, in these services, God not only gives you the story, but He actually delivers to you the gifts that He's won by His perfect life, His holy death, and His victorious resurrection.

Yes, it will be uncomfortable. Yes, it's difficult and demanding. But yes, it's also incredibly important. It's also incredibly rewarding for you. Your faith will be built up and strengthened as you spend the week absorbed by the Word of God, which brings to you the forgiveness, life, and salvation that Christ has won for you.

And your fellow Christians will be encouraged by your presence. The body of Christ will be strengthened as you hear the Word of God together. As you sing the faith together. As you receive the gifts of God together. As you join together as one, even though it's uncomfortable at times.

So, this year, as Holy Week approaches, consider all of this. Consider what's happening during this week and why the Church has always cherished these services. And join your brothers and sisters in Christ by being uncomfortable. For in this discomfort, your Lord is working to give you the comfort and the hope and the joy that's yours in Christ, your Savior.

Stewardship Under the Cross

Putting It All Together

Over the past several months we have set out as a congregation to learn what God's Word has to say about stewardship. One thing we learned is that faithful stewardship is a lifestyle. So here is a review of God's Word for you to study with the year ahead in mind. No matter where you are at in your stewardship – tithing, going beyond a tithe, or still considering the concept of tithing – let this study lead you to think about pray about stewardship based on the Word.

Your heart will always go where you put God's money. Jesus said that where your treasure is, there your heart will be also and as we sing each Sunday morning at the Offering: We give Thee but Thine own. God is the ultimate giver of our incomes: all these gifts come from Him. To acknowledge this gift and our dependence on the Lord, God calls us to give a portion of our income back to Him for the maintenance of His Church. Indeed, the Scriptures are very clear: God calls His people to give at least a tithe of their income (10% of whatever “comes in”) back to Him at their place of worship.

This calls for faith. Do we trust God's Word? Do we trust that what He says is for our benefit, not our harm? If you have never tithed before, it can be a scary proposition. Give 10% of my income away!? You've got to be kidding. But God doesn't ever kid us in His Word. Instead, He tells us how to live holy and blessed lives full of peace and contentment. Consider these Scriptures:

Jesus said, "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. 20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also (Matthew 6:19-21).

"Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me. But you ask, 'How do we rob you?' 'In tithes and offerings. 9 You are under a curse-- the whole nation of you-- because you are robbing me. 10 Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this," says the LORD Almighty, "and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that you will not have room enough for it " (Malachi 3:8-10) .

On the first day of every week, each of you is to put something aside and store it up, as each one of you may prosper (1 Corinthians 16:2).

But just as you excel in everything-- in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in your love for us - see that you also excel in this grace of giving (2 Corinthians 8:7).

The point is this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that you may always have enough of everything and may provide in abundance for every good work (2 Cor. 9:6-8).

We do not make God poor when we fail to give money to Him properly, but we do make ourselves poor if we do not give according to the standards He sets for us in His Word, the Bible. God does not need our money, but we need to give the way the Bible tells us to in order to overcome the negative influence money and the things of this world can have on us.

God will never tell us to do something that will be to our harm – He loves us too much for that. Jesus gave His life on the cross for me. He loves me and knows what is best for me – so I can know that what He says about stewardship is meant for my benefit. He wants my heart to be with Him – and my heart will always follow where I put God's money. Tithing is not easy: it is godly. It will change your life. Stepping out in faith always does. You may have to change your lifestyle to accommodate following God's Word in this matter. But tithing will change your life in other ways too: it will give you a peace and contentment that can only come from actually putting yourself in the hands of the Lord.

So read through those Scriptures again. Pray through the following questions and step out in faith this year with giving that is in accord with God's Word. And just see if you are not blessed in it.

The Lord loves me and gave Himself for me on the cross.    Y    N

All that I have comes from the Lord.    Y    N

The Lord blessed me to live in the richest land in the world.    Y    N

If I had to start living on 90% of my current income tomorrow, I or someone in my family would starve.    Y    N

I / We have been making first-fruit, regular, proportionate and generous (at least 10%, a tithe) money offerings to the Lord from the heart.    Y    N

If “Yes”, the Lord gets all the glory for that.    Y    N

If “No”, the Lord wants me to change the way I make money offerings to him.    Y    N

If the Lord wants me to change, I should change now, not later.    Y    N

It is the power of the Holy Spirit and the love of Jesus Christ that changes me for the better.

Elders' Corner

(A monthly feature from the Board of Elders)

Greetings in the name of Jesus.

As we finish the season of Lent and come to Holy Week and Easter, we remember these words from our recent Epistle reading of 2 Corinthians 5:16-21: <sup>16</sup>“From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. <sup>18</sup>All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; <sup>19</sup>that is, in Christ God was reconciling<sup>[c]</sup> the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. <sup>20</sup>Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. <sup>21</sup>For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.”

In the love of our Savior,
Elders of St Peter

Book of the Month: The Book of the Month will be available in the Parish Hall library. The April Book of the Month is Life Under the Cross: A Biography of the Reformer Matthias Flacius Illyricus by Wade Johnston. Here is an excerpt from the book: "Matthias Flacius Illyricus is one of the most significant and polarizing figures in Protestant history. There is no way around him. Exegetes, historians, and systematic theologians have been shaped by him, whether they realize it or not. Protestant conceptions of the relationship between church and state, including our own in the United States, have been influenced by Flacius and his comrades and supporters. The fields of hermeneutics and church history – whether Protestant or Roman Catholic – have him as a father. He is one of the single most productive and profound theologians Germany has ever produced, and he was a Croatian. He is perhaps one of the most important scholars that scholars simply do not write about."

Altar Flowers: If you would like to sponsor altar flowers, there is a sign-up sheet for 2025 in the hallway between Pastor's study and the church office. The cost to sponsor the flowers is $20, and the payment can be put in the offering plate or in the mail rack outside the church office door. ### Book of Concord Corner

“I believe in the Holy Spirit... We further believe that in this Christian Church we have forgiveness of sin, which is wrought through the holy Sacraments and Absolution (Matthew 26:28; Mark 1:4; John 20:23) and through all kinds of comforting promises from the entire Gospel. Therefore, whatever ought to be preached about the Sacraments belongs here. In short, the whole Gospel and all the offices of Christianity belong here, which also must be preached and taught without ceasing. God’s grace is secured through Christ (John 1:17), and sanctification is wrought by the Holy Spirit through God’s Word in the unity of the Christian Church. Yet because of our flesh, which we bear about with us, we are never without sin (Romans 7:23-24).” (Large Catechism, Part 2, 54)

Lent and Holy Week Services

Lent is a special 40-day season during which the Church reflects on her sin and on her need for a Savior. It is a time for us to turn our focus away from the things of this world and toward Christ, our dear Lord. As such, it is most appropriate for the Church to gather together more often during this season as we wait with anticipation for the joy of Easter. It is my prayer that all of us here at St. Peter would join together during this special season as we repent of our sin and look for the death and resurrection of Christ.
